"RECOMSTRUCTION."

"Gen. Grierson has testified before the reconstruction committee that he believed that an organization existed in Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi "for the renewal of the rebellion," and that there is manifested a desire to have the country in a war with France relative to Mexico. He gave it as his opinion that in such an event, men of the South would seize the op- that firm, portunity to turn against the United States. Gen. Thomas also testified that the people of Alabama are anxious to have their State restored to the Union, but that they are personally hostile to the Union men."

Gen. Thomas and every man who is connected with the U.S. army ought to know, if they do not, that the idea of renewing a war at the South has never entered into the most fanatieal brain. Her military power is crushed; her political power is absorbed by a greater power; and she looks forward to peace in the Union, as the only basis of commercial and personal prosperity. We have sworn to support the Union and intend to abide by our pledge. If life becomes insupportable here, we do not intend to involve women and children in another revolution, but to seek new homes in another land. It is our fervent hope, however, that, in time, the personal animosity which we feel towards the Abolitionists, may be dispelled by the prosperity which a return to old principles will inevitably bring to us.

The Southern people are anxious for political harmony, but have little hope of securing it, while men like Grierson and Thomas, high in command, but low in partisan ranchor, mistake personal antipathies for political perfidy.-Montgomery, (Ala.) Mail.

COVINGTON AND OHIO R. R.-Mr. John B. Baldwin, chairman of the Virginia Commis- new and beautiful. sion, authorized to contract for the construction, by a company, of the Covington and Ohio Railroad, is now in Washington city, where he expects to meet Mr. G. W. Summers, of the West Virginia Commission, for an informal consultation preliminary to calling a meeting of the two boards of commissioners. This meeting will be called at an early day, and from what we hear, it is more than likely the charter for the building and equipping the Covington & Ohio Railroad will be given out at once, as a company with abundant capital are ready to take it with all the conditions annexed by the law of the Legislature creating the charter.

A powerful influence is being brought to bear upon the Executive for a remission of the sentence recently pronounced against G. B. Lamar, of Georgia, formerly president of the Bank of the Republic, New York, for certain alleged attempts to defraud the government.—

The conviction, it will be remembered, was larger than the Washington Republic, New York, for certain and low grades, Brandies, Gin, California Wines, Champagne, Port, Sherry, and other Wines, Jamaica Spirits, Santa Cruz Rum, Cordials, Ale Lamar, of Georgia, formerly president of the before a military court, and the friends of Lamar contend that it was not a proper one to adjudicate his case, he being a private citizen and amenable only to the civil courts. The Supreme Court has this very question before it now, and the President may await its decision as applicable to that of Lamer.
